CHAPTERS

IIDA Chapters and City Centers give you access to the information you need, when you need it—industry news, local networking events, CEUs, and updates on relevant advocacy and regulatory activities that affect your right to practice.

Connect with your local IIDA Chapter to create and support the future of design in your area. Find your chapter at www.iida.org/chapters.

• Network with your peers and enhance your key industry contacts at chapter events.
• Expand your leadership skills by volunteering for chapter committees and board positions; serve as a leader in an international organization that has 15,000+ members in 58 countries.
• Stay informed and up to date with licensing requirements, code changes, and professional development through CEU opportunities.
• Celebrate interior design in your area with chapter-specific design awards.
• Develop working relationships with a variety of organizations in your area and help foster sponsorship opportunities with industry partners.
• Cultivate an environment that encourages excellence, promotes the value of commercial interior design, and elevates the profession.
• Affect tangible change in your region through grassroots community service efforts.
• Create and foster mentorship opportunities with emerging design professionals from local universities and colleges.
• Collaborate with partner disciplines such as architects, landscape architects, facility managers, real estate brokers, and marketing professionals.

For more information about chapters, contact memberservices@iida.org.

CHAPTER AWARDS

Encourage your chapter to apply for the annual IIDA Chapter Awards. These awards celebrate chapters of all sizes for contributing to the growth and enrichment of IIDA by enhancing the profession at the local level.

IIDA CHAPTER LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

If you are interested in becoming a leader in your local chapter, you may be eligible to attend IIDA Chapter Leadership Council (CLC) meetings. CLC meets twice a year with representatives from the IIDA International Board and IIDA Headquarters to discuss chapter updates and exchange ideas and crucial operations information.

USE YOUR IIDA APPELLATION:
- On your business cards, website, resume, LinkedIn profile, and email signature.
- When being interviewed in the media.
- When receiving recognition in press releases, newsletters, and announcements.

REMEMBER:
- Capitalize IIDA; do not separate with periods or other punctuation.
- List IIDA first when you include multiple appellations; alphabetize other appellations (ex: John Smith, IIDA, AIA).
IIDA Members in good standing are welcome to use the IIDA logo with the appropriate appellation for personal use. Log on to the members-only website to access your logo.

While IIDA encourages members to make use of this benefit, we also ask you to use the logo responsibly. Please read the following rules of logo use:

1  PROPORTIONS:
Do not use the logo smaller than 1 inch wide (print) or 75 pixels wide (web). Never condense, expand, or distort the logo beyond its original proportions.

2  CLEAR SPACE:
A minimum clear space should be maintained around the logo at all times. The free space surrounding the logo on all sides must be twice the measurement, which is 2x.

3  LOGO CONTENT:
The logo is the most important visible mark of the association’s identity. It is important to use the logo and logotype consistently and correctly.

Use the IIDA logo on:
• Business cards
• Websites
• Email signatures

Do not remove parts of the logo, distort the shape, or create alternate logos using portions of the current logo.

Do not change the logo’s color.
LEARN

CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSES

IIDA Members are the vanguard of the Interior Design profession, and IIDA is passionate about the value of keeping you informed of the latest discussions, advancements, and innovations in the industry. We support the ongoing evolution of your skills and practice through the pursuit of lifelong learning and education.

WHAT IS A CEU?
A continuing education unit (CEU) is the measurement of contact hours and credits assigned to an approved course. One contact hour is equivalent to 0.1 CEU.

WHAT TYPE OF CREDIT DOES IIDA ACCEPT?
- IIDA accepts all IDCEC-approved courses.
- IDCEC-approved providers report attendance onto the IDCEC CE Registry for qualifying IIDA Members.
- Non-IDCEC approved courses may be submitted to IIDA for review to receive credit toward the IIDA compliance requirement.

HOW TO REPORT CEU CREDITS TO IIDA
- Use of the IDCEC CE Registry Service is an IIDA Member benefit provided at no cost to qualifying members. IDCEC is the official registry service for IIDA, ASID, and IDC.
- Non-IDCEC courses can be submitted for review using the Non-IDCEC CEU Approval (NICA) form, available at www.iida.org/CEU-approval.

HOW TO FIND CEU COURSES
IIDA helps you find the education you need to stay at the forefront of your profession:
- Visit www.iida.org/events or the IDCEC Event Calendar for the latest CEU events and activities.
- Access the IIDA distance learning program guide at www.iida.org/distance-learning.
- Contact your IIDA Chapter for more information on local and regional CEU events.

STAY UP TO DATE
To maintain professional or associate status, members are required to complete 10 hours (1.0 CEUs) every two-year compliance period.

For more information about continuing education courses, contact CEU@iida.org.

LEADERS BREAKFAST

Join up to 600+ attendees at an IIDA Leaders Breakfast in one of eight cities across the U.S. and Canada. Each event features a renowned keynote speaker and recognizes one city-selected honoree who has made significant contributions to the design industry. For over 25 years, this international event series has celebrated design’s importance in the global marketplace by honoring the people who are both the legacy and future of design.

BE INSPIRED BY CREATIVE VISIONARIES
Each Leaders Breakfast features a renowned keynote speaker who shares their insights on the creative process and more. Past speakers have included: Paola Antonelli, senior curator of architecture and design at MoMA; Cheryl Strayed, author of the novel Wild; actor/director Sydney Pollack; Mick Ebeling, innovator, humanitarian, and author; Polly LaBarre, author and founding member of Fast Company; and Jake Barton, principal of Local Projects, known for designing the 9/11 and Hewlett-Packard museums.

HONOR INTERIOR DESIGN INDUSTRY LEADERS
IIDA Leaders Breakfasts honor interior design leaders, educators, and organizations that have made significant contributions to the design industry on a local level. Over 130 honorees have received the coveted Leadership of Excellence Award. Current recipients receive a special edition Charles and Ray Eames walnut stool awarded by one of the international benefactors, Herman Miller.

CONNECT WITH YOUR LOCAL DESIGN COMMUNITY
Leaders Breakfast events are held in eight cities across the U.S. and Canada, often drawing upwards of 600 attendees from the design community. Meet, mingle, and network with designers, architects, manufacturers, and other industry professionals in your area.
